STATEMENT OF FCC CPNI RULE COMPLIANCE

This statement serves to explain how the MGW Communications (“MGW”) family of companies (collectively, the Company) is complying with Federal Communications Commission (“FCC”) rules related to the privacy of customer information. The type of information for which customer privacy is protected by the FCC’s rules is called “customer proprietary network information” (“CPNI”). The FCC’s rules restricting telecommunication company use of CPNI are contained in Part 64, Subpart U or the FCC’s rules (47 C.F.R. Section 64.2000-2009).

1. Nature of CPNI Practices

MGW provides Telecommunications service to an all rural area of west central Virginia. The Company has separate affiliates for some services, but those separate affiliates have common employees. The Company’s affiliates include the following companies:

MGW Telephone Company, Inc.
MGW Long Distance, LLC
MGW Networks, LLC

No matter which of the Company’s affiliates provides a service, the employees of the Telephone Company provide customer service and support to the customers of the other affiliates.

2. Identification of CPNI

The Company has established procedures and trained employees having access to, or occasion to use customer data, to identify customer information that is CPNI consistent with the definition of CPNI under the FCC’s rules at Part 64, Subpart U, Section 64.2003(d).

3. Identification of Services affected by CPNI Rules

The Company has established procedures and trained its employees to recognize the different types of telecommunications and non-telecommunications services that affect how the Company uses CPNI. These services are:

4. Identification of Permissible Uses of CPNI Without Customer Authorization

The Company has established procedures and trained employees to identify uses of CPNI not requiring customer authorization under the FCC's Part 64, Subpart U, Section 64.2005.

5. Identification of Uses of CPNI Requiring Customer Authorization

The Company has established procedures and trained employees having access to, or occasion to use CPNI, to identify uses of CPNI requiring customer authorization under the FCC's rules at Part 64, Subpart U, Section 64.2007.

6. Marketing

The Company does not use CPNI information for marketing purposes, nor does it outsource marketing of its services.

7. Training

The Company has trained existing employees having access to, or occasion to use CPNI, as to when they are and are not authorized to use CPNI. The Company will train new employees in the use of CPNI as part of employee orientation.
